Organization Overview:

Miami Music Project is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that uses music as an instrument for social transformation, empowering children to acquire values and achieve their full potential, positively affecting their society through the study and performance of music. Our vision is to create opportunity and access through music for those most in need, improve the quality of life for children today and ultimately transform their lives, the lives of their families, and their communities.

Emerging as a model for music education programs nationally, Miami Music Project offers free of charge, after-school programming to all students with no barriers to entry, regardless of race or economic status. As of today, Miami Music Project has reached over 30,000 of children and youth across Miami-Dade County, becoming one of the largest socially transformative music initiatives in the US. Miami Music Project's programming is inspired by the El Sistema phenomenon - a model for social change and a visionary global movement that transforms the lives of children through music.

Position Summary:

The primary function of the Site Coordinator is to coordinate the program's students, parents and teaching artists while classes are being held. The Site Coordinator and Site Director are the persons in charge at the chapter every day of classes, in the late afternoons and evenings. Essential Functions:

- Coordinating the logistical components of the program on location during classes, educational activities and performances of the ensembles,
- Collaborating with Site Director to create plans for local recruitment and retention of students,
- Collecting daily student attendance and providing attendance reports on monthly basis,
- Collaborating with Site Director to create strong relationships with families and communicate consistently with parents in regarding each student,
- Working effectively with the teachers, volunteers and location providers for the purpose of maintaining good communication and program efficiency,
- Assisting Site Director in the enforcement of rules and procedures of students and teaching artists,
- Helping maintain accurate information on database of all on site resources, including musical instruments, education materials, music sheets, supplies and teaching tools,
- Coordinating volunteer roster for daily chapter needs and other volunteer activities for events,
- Creating and updating of files and records,
- Dispersing, collecting and filing all student paperwork,
- Providing support in Miami Music Project main office for larger projects outside of the chapter location,
- Reporting on student behavioral challenges and filing behavior reports,
- Traveling between the site/chapter and Miami Music Project office at least two times per week for office hours.
- Flexibility to take over another position if needed (bus assistant, security assistant, etc.)
- Running the site daily before, during and after programming.

Qualifications and desired skills include:

- Strong commitment to El Sistema philosophy and mission of the Miami Music Project,
- Excellent time management skills, ability to meet deadlines while balancing daily activities and tasks,
- Basic knowledge of musical instruments and music areas/theory/culture (classical),
- Excellent interpersonal, oral and written communication skills in a diverse environment requiring diplomacy and good judgment in managing interactions with individuals,
- Attention to detail,
- Demonstrated positive and collaborative approach to work,
- Demonstrated proficiency with MSWord, Outlook and Excel is required,
- Experience working in the field of education or in a non-profit environment is a plus,
- Ability to quickly learn new computer programs and systems
- Must be able to lift and move up to 50 lbs, and will be expected to assist with moving equipment pertinent to general operations and special events.

Miami Music Project is firmly committed to a policy of equal employment opportunity. We hire qualified applicants without regard to race, color, sex, religion, national origin or ancestry, age, marital or veteran / military status, disability, genetic information, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or any other legally protected status.

As permissible under applicable law, applicants will be subject to a pre-employment background check and drug test after receiving a conditional offer of employment. The background check will investigate criminal background and other matters related to suitability for employment, particularly since Miami Music Project works with children. Likewise, employment is contingent on receiving a negative test result for illegal drug use. Separate disclosure and consent forms will be provided prior to any background check or drug test.
